

Massage Therapist 2200 Hour

THE DETAILS

We are looking for a 2200 hour therapist to join our team of professionals. We have a therapist who recently left a full schedule due to parental leave.

This is a position which provides both a regular schedule and flexible hours.

We embrace a collaborative environment which fosters proactive patient care, retention and client loyalty. We are committed to providing our Practice Members with an elevated, inspiring and educational treatment experience in our office. We strive to consistently exceed the expectations of our Practice Members.

We are seeking an RMT who is motivated to positively impact the lives of their clients and partner with them on their wellness journey. Our perfect candidate does not fear success and is excited to share their passion for health. We are looking for someone who understands the value of collaborating and learning with the other health professionals in our office as well as building long-term relationships with our Practice Members and their families. The ideal candidate has a solid understanding of the importance of consistent customer service, thrives in a team environment, and is committed to excellence in their field.
